Demographic Transition, Labour Markets and Regional Resilience

Series: Advances in Spatial Science

- ▶ Presents a broad range of national and local policies to deal with demographic change
- ▶ Provides a synthesis of policy lessons
- ▶ Covers regions from Europe, North America and Asia
- ▶ Includes full color maps and data from OECD countries and China

This book discusses the question of how a regional economy can develop under the influence of an ageing and declining population, and how regional development policies can help make labor markets more resilient and more inclusive. As the greatest impacts of demographic change and policy and fiscal challenges can be observed at the local level, examples from European, North American and Asian regions are combined to present a comprehensive, global range of strategic solutions from different policy contexts. The book shows how institutions, organizations and communities can enhance their pathways for sustainable development through the intelligent management of their demographic transition, and offers a synthesis of valuable lessons and strategies.
